

REGISTRATION SCHOLARSHIPS FOR CAREER CONSTRUCTION COUNSELING
INSTITUTE IN ALBUQUERQUE NMCDA MEMBERS

Announcement

The New Mexico Career Development Association will award two $625 registration scholarships for two NMCDA members to attend the CCI Institute to be held in Albuquerque February 14-16, 2018.

The Institute training provides all the instruction and materials by the foremost national and local experts necessary to learn and practice Career Construction Counseling using life design dialogues. The curriculum includes lectures, demonstrations, round table discussions, and participant practice with feedback evaluation. Additional information about career construction counseling and the institute is found at <http://www.careerconstructioninstitute.org/>

The two and one half-day institute will be held at Casas de Suenos Old Town in Albuquerque and registration includes breakfasts and lunches, parking and all materials.

Application Requirements

Member of NMCDA for at least one year.

Attend the entire 2 1/2 day institute

Provide a narrative of how the training will be of value and the plans for implementation after completion to include actual use in a group or individual setting for at least 5 students or clients within 60 days of completion. This plan should not exceed one page single spaced.

Provide a one-page report to the Board on the results of the actual training session(s) within 10 days of completion.

Selection

Winners will be determined by members of the NMCDA board based on the applicant's value and plans statement.

Application-form attached

Submit to NMCDA President Autumn Collins at autumn@unm.edu by February 1, 2018. The winners will be notified by February 2, 2018. Awardees are responsible for registering directly with the Institute online and will be reimbursed at the first day of the Institute.
